

Dr. Mark Gold

If there is a slip, if there is use, if there is a problem, parents have to keep open communication or else the child has to hide it — will hide it and the parents will only find out when it's really too late. So keep open the communication.