

Brad

I was actually in a locker room after gym class at school in 7th grade and somebody was offering to sell a joint for three dollars. I had never tried it but I kept hearing about and I was just really curious so I just wanted to do it. So I asked I good friend of mine if he wanted to try it out with me.