

Hope

My fear in confronting this is that other people would find out that my children were using and therefore, I was a bad parent, that I did not recognize the signs.