

American Indian Anti-Meth Campaign

“Who Am I?” (Boy) Youth Radio Advertisement Transcript

MUSIC UP

MALE TEEN:

Who am I? Am I Native?
I don't want people assuming things 'cuz I'm Indian.
I just wanna be me.
But how do I live in two worlds?
Some guys jus' check out by doin' meth.
But that ain't for me.
Cuz I see my family. My friends.
My drum-making. My future.
There are a lot of cool things about being who I am.
And meth isn't one of them.

FEMALE TEEN ANNOUNCER:

Learn more at ncai.org.

A message from the Partnership for a Drug-Free America and the National Congress of American Indians.

Sponsored by ONDCP. Creative furnished by Partnership for a Drug-Free America.